

TWELFTH NIGHT MASQUE . . . Scene from the annual holiday festival presented by the Civic Symphony of the Torrance and South Bay. This year's presentation will be Monday evening at the Redondo High School auditorium. Admission is free. A full dress rehearsal has been scheduled this afternoon at the auditorium, and Elyse Aehle, director of the orchestra and the masque, says children are being especially invited to attend. Adults will not be admitted today except as escorts for children.

Civic Symphony Slates Twelfth Night Concert

The Torrance Civic Symphony will present its annual Christmas concert and masque tomorrow night, the Twelfth Night of Christmas. The program will begin at 8 o'clock in the Redondo Union High School Auditorium.

The Christmas Masque was first presented 11 years ago, and has been an annual project in the years since then. Each picture is accompanied by appropriate music.

Among the reproductions to be enacted by members of the cast include: "Madonna" with Yolanda Hansen; "Christmas Eve" with Girl Scouts enacting the scene; "Epiphany" by the Crusaders; and "Snow Camp," by Boy Scout Troop 348.

OTHER SCENES will include: "Bringing in the Yule Log," Scout Troop 390; "Our Lady of Victory" and "Four Angels," Catholic Daughters Court of Our Lady of Victory; "Two Santas," Salvation Army; and "Carolers," members of the orchestra.

Mrs. Catherine Leslie will narrate the program. Elyse Aehle will direct the 79-member orchestra in the First Symphony by Beethoven, dances from the "Nutmacker Suite" by Tchaikowsky, Handel's Halleluja Chorus, and two popular Leroy Anderson numbers.

THERE IS NO charge for admission to the program.

Dr. Hubbard Will Speak

Dr. David A. Hubbard, president of the Fuller Technological Seminary in Pasadena, will be guest speaker at the Rolling Hills Covenant Church at Sunday's 11 a.m. worship service.

The pastor of the church, the Rev. Robert A. Honnette, is at the Junior High Bible Camp at the Alpine Covenant California Conference Grounds for the weekend.

This afternoon, a special children's rehearsal will be presented. Children will be admitted when accompanied by at least one adult in each group, but adult groups will not be admitted to the 2:30 p.m. program.
